Provide products and services that increase our customers' productivity and efficiency

Achieve customer satisfaction through responsive, personalized support and service

Evaluate emerging technologies and incorporate them for the benefit of our customers

Promote a work environment that encourages personal and professional growth and accomplishment

As a leading solutions provider we are committed to exceeding our customers' expectations, as well as our own, throughout the development and implementation of our products and services.

Dolbey

Where Commitment to Product Quality and Customer Service is Assured

John Dolbey and Thomas Edison shook hands on a dictation franchise over 90 years ago. Edison's wax cylinder dictation machine was amazing technology back then and for nearly a century, Dolbey has pioneered new advances in dictation and document management systems.

Total Solution- Dolbey combines the most advanced dictation and transcription technologies with the latest speech recognition solutions to create a fully integrated document management system that improves performance, increases productivity, simplifies administrative tasks and saves your facility money.

Expert Professionals- Not your typical dictation and transcription vendor, Dolbey's sales professionals understand your clinical documentation needs, our talented development team provides powerful software solutions and our experienced support team and trainers offer 24/7/365 assistance for all system users initially, and throughout the life of your system.

Dolbey has dealers across most of the United States and our client base includes many of the premier hospitals and clinics in the country. Dolbey has proven to be one of the most stable and reliable companies in the clinical documentation industry and for the past three years has been given the highest vendor ranking by a leading national technology rating company.
